CV
Daniel Elbro

Areas of Specialisation

Philosophy of Mind and Action, Normative Ethics, Metaethics

Areas of Competence

Applied Ethics, Metaphysics, Epistemology

Employment

2023–	Course Officer – City St George's, University of London
2022–23	Lecturer (AEP Rolling Teaching Fellow) in Philosophy – King's College London
2019–22	Graduate Teaching Assistant – King's College London
2017–18	Teaching Assistant – The Petchey Academy

Research

2024	'Two approaches to grounding moral standing: interests-first or value-first?' Philosophical Studies, forthcoming

Education

2018–2022	PhD Philosophy – King's College London
	Thesis: 'Agency as the Grounds for Moral Standing'
	Supervisors: Maria Alvarez (primary), Joachim Aufderheide, John Callanan, David Owens
	Examiners: Hallvard Lillehammer (Birkbeck)
	Alison Hills (St John's College, Oxford)
2016–17	MA Philosophy, Distinction – King's College London
	Dissertation: 'Three worries about freedom and an agent-causal response'
	Supervisor: Christopher Hughes
2013–16	BA(Hons) Philosophy, Politics and Economics, First – University of Sussex

Teaching

As convenor – King's College London

2022	Ethics I
2022	Introduction to Philosophy I, Ethics element

As teaching assistant/seminar leader – King's College London

2023	Introduction to Philosophy II, Epistemology element
2023	Epistemology I
2023	Introduction to Values-Based Clinical Practice
2022	Modern Philosophy
2022	Introduction to Philosophy II, Epistemology element
2022	Introduction to Philosophy II, Metaphysics element
2021	Ethics I
2020	Introduction to Philosophy I, Ethics element
2020	Metaphysics I
2019	Ethics I

Presentations

Refereed & Invited Talks

2023	'Two ways to argue about moral standing'. Understanding Value XI, University of Sheffield (March)
2022	'Two ways to argue about moral standing'. 17th London-Berkeley Philosophy Conference (May)
2022	'Two ways to argue about moral standing'. 5th London Graduate Workshop in Moral and Political Philosophy (April)
2021	'Agency as the grounds for moral standing.' Cumberland Lodge Philosophy Conference, King's College London (October)
2021	'Agency as the grounds for moral standing.' Start of Year Philosophy Conference, King's College London (September)
2020	'Harmlessly wronging other animals.' London Graduate Philosophy Conference, Institute of Philosophy (December)

Comments

2019	On Sophie Kikkert, 'Analysing Abilities.' London-Warwick Mind Forum (November)

Professional Service & Administration

2023	Library and Technology Enhanced Learning Rep – KCL Department of Philosophy
2023	Web & Social Media Lead – KCL Department of Philosophy
2022	Co-organiser, KCL workshop on 'Non-Human Agency and the Standard Story of Action' (September)
2022	Co-organiser, Future of Humanity Institute/KCL workshop on the grounds of moral status (June)

2021	Co-organiser, KCL Graduate Conference in Politics, Philosophy and Law (December)
2020–22	GTA Representative, Philosophy Department, King's College London
2019–22	Co-convenor, Philosophy of Action Reading Group, King's College London
2019	Co-convenor, Fellow Creatures Reading Group, King's College London
2014–16	Treasurer, Marx Reading Group, University of Sussex
2013–14	Co-founder & Academic Events Organiser, PPE Society, University of Sussex

Awards & Funding

2022	Group Event Grant for workshop on 'Non-Human Agency and the Standard Story of Action' (£2900) – King's College London Faculty of Arts & Humanities
2019	Travel grant (£330) – London Arts & Humanities Partnership Research Support Fund
2018–21	AHRC Research Studentship (fees and stipend) – London Arts & Humanities Partnership
2015	Highest marks in cohort for Philosophy (second year) – University of Sussex

Public Engagement

2023	Appearance on podcast The Lion's Share, 'Untangling the Ethical Dilemmas of True Crime: Part 2'
2021	'Review: Cécile Fabre, '"Snatching Something from Death": Value, Justice, and Humankind's Common Heritage' (KCL Annual Peace Lecture 2021)' – KCL Philosophy Blog